Luminator Announces New Infotainment Solution, CONVEY™

Luminator Technology Group is excited to announce the launch of CONVEY™ Infotainment, our latest generation of transit infotainment solutions. As the pioneer of transit infotainment in North America, Luminator has a long-standing reputation and extensive expertise in creating durable and user-friendly infotainment systems for public transit vehicles. CONVEY™ Infotainment advances that commitment to our customers by providing an easily integrated hardware and software solution.

Luminator is now delivering CONVEY™ Infotainment solutions to the market. Our comprehensive platform, Luminator Software Suite, will manage, monitor, and configure Infotainment, Destination Signs and Stationary Signs to simplify how transit agencies deliver timely and accurate information to passengers. By integrating these solutions, Luminator aims to transform daily commutes into a more informed, connected, and enjoyable experience for all.

"We are proud to launch the new CONVEY™ Infotainment series of products and services for our customers," said Robert Rozploch, Chief Technology Officer at Luminator. "With our innovative CONVEY™ displays, travelers on public transit systems are provided meaningful real-time location-aware information to ensure an intelligent, easy, and pleasant passenger experience throughout their commute."
